I hope this letter reaches you well,

Apologies that this letter isn't contacting you under better circumstances. Apologies that I wasn't as easy to get rid of and ignore as you'd like.

Whatever is happening in Veles. Whatever has been done to the others. It ends now.

Sincerely,

Hana Stone

I think it would be best if you minded your own business. I wouldn't want anything bad to happen to you, if you push this further.

Stay in your lane.

I see you've made your choice, much as I have.

See you soon.
